He married Lydia A. GREGORY 27 Mar 1845 in New York, daughter of Levi GREGORY and Ireaney HAYES. She was born 13 Sep 1821 in Glens Falls, Warren, Co., New York, and died 30 Jun 1891 in Newaygo City, Newaygo Co., Michigan¹².

Notes for Henry J. ORTON:

From the Newaygo Republican, March 19, 1891, [condensed version by Robert Thompson] - Henry J. Orton was born on the 2nd day of May, 1818, at Luzerne, Saratoga Co., New York, and died in this village (Newaygo, Michigan), March 12, 1891. He was married to Miss Lydia Gregory of Glen's Falls, New York, March 27th, 1845. The early years of Mr. Orton's life were spent as a canal boatman on the old Erie Canal, he and his brother being proprietors of a line of boats on that famous canal. In 1853 the original Newaygo Company was formed at Glen's Falls with the brothers Alanson F. Orton & Henry J. Orton becoming members of it, and in September of that year operations were commenced at Newaygo. The Ortons were moving spirits in the enterprise and the Muskegon river was dammed almost entirely under the supervision of Henry, who developed a great deal of skill in that work and became noted as a skillful dam builder. After a few years of success the affairs of the company became badly tangled and the property was bought by Wood & Lawrence. Later the firm of A.F. & H.J. Orton was formed and soon became one of the most prominent concerns on the river. They bought a mill at Muskegon and did a heavy lumbering business. For years they had the contracts for running all the logs cut on the river to Muskegon. A.F. Orton had charge of all the business at Muskegon, while H.J. was engaged in affairs up the river. At the death of A.F. on October 17th 1873, it was found that the affairs of the firm were again tangled. After the death of his brother Henry wound up the affairs as best he could and since then has done little. Certified Death Record from Newaygo County Clerk, Laurel J. Breuker. Henry J. Orton and Lydia A. Orton are buried in the Newaygo Cemetery.

Notes for Ervin H. GOERKE:

From the Waukesha Freeman, 25 Dec. 1940 [Wed.] - Local Guardsmen Home For Christmas; Like Army Camp. Christmas Eve will be a merry one at the E.H. Goerke home at 624 Madison st. for all four of the Goerke sons will be around the parlor Christmas tree. This will be an unusual Christmas for three of the Goerke sons will be attired in natty National Guard uniforms. They are Armand, 18, Douglas, 21, and Donald, 23, who were among 40 Waukesha young men who came back home from Camp Beauregard, La., for the holiday season. A fourth Goerke, Calvin, at 15, is still too young to join the guard, although he has high hopes. The Goerkes and other guardsmen who returned with them provided a military touch of World War days to Waukesha streets as they attended to last minute shopping duties or visited friends they hadn't seen since they left Oconomowoc for a year's training in the south on Oct. 22. Adds 15 Pounds. The two months that have passed since that time seemed short when guardsmen pulled into Milwaukee station on their special train Sunday night. But in that space of time a great change had taken place. Young men who had been drilling two weeks every summer and one night a week, had become fattened and fit under the rigorous training at Camp Beaugard. Armand Goerke, for example, put on 15 pounds since he left Waukesha. Another guardsman, William Murray, explained the reason why most of the young soldiers gained weight, "The food is excellent and there is plenty of it," he said....
